NUMB. 2355

SATURDAY, JANUARY 8. 1743.

Franckfort, Jan. 3.

YESTERDAY about Ten in the Morning his Imperial Majeſty receiv'd an Expreſs from Manheim, with Advice of the Elector Palatine's Death on the 31ſt of December, about Eight in the Evening; as alſo that his Grandſon, the Prince of Sultzbach, is dangerouſly ill; which has thrown the Court to the utmoſt Conſternation. His Majeſty has alſo received a Courier from M. Belleiſle, with Advice of his being arriv'd at Egra. This too has ſurpriz'd the Court, ſince it ſerves to confirm what has been ſtrongly ſuſpected here, that the French only retired into Bavaria, in order to give the Marſhal an Opportunity of making his Retreat; and it is thought they will not ſtay there long after he has join'd them. Tho' many great Politicians have treated the Propoſitions ſaid to be made to the Emperor, for relinquiſhing his Claim to the Auſtrian Succeſſion, as chimerical; yet from the following Paſſages in his Imperial Majeſty's laſt Reſcript, in Refutation of the Papers lately publiſhed at Vienna, it is very clear that the before-mentioned Fact is true; and we think, that notwithſtanding the Reſentment expreſs'd in this Paper, his Imperial Majeſty grows weary of his Dependence on that Court, and that this will quickly appear.

'The Averſion which the Court of Vienna has ſo long ſhewn to Peace ſeems to grow ſtronger every day, for it is not purely to amuſe the Publick that this Court affects to ring the Changes, by talking of juſt and equitable Propoſitions made at the Hague, when they very well know, that theſe Hague Propoſitions never came to the Notice of his Imperial Majeſty in a legal and authentick Manner. It remains at all times with the Court of Vienna to inform the World, if they think fit, what the Contents were of theſe Hague Propoſitions.——— But theſe Conditions of Accommodation, ſo much boaſted of, may poſſibly make a Part of that new and vaſt Syſtem ſo much talk'd of in the World. If they do, could it poſſibly be believ'd at Vienna, that his Imperial Majeſty would be put off with Promiſes and Expectations, grounded on a Combination of Cauſes which as yet do not exiſt, and the Iſſue of what they may produce is altogether uncertain.——— Does not Common Senſe ſhew, that it is its own particular Intereſts which engage the Court of Vienna to propoſe ſuch a Plan? The Execution of it, even ſuppoſing that his Majeſty ſhould ſacrifice his Rectitude, his Fidelity, his ſtrict Regard to Treaties, the glorious Characteriſtic of German Princes, would by no means anſwer the End propoſed. This fine Syſtem, inſtead of procuring Tranquillity to the Empire, which is ſaid to be what is aim'd at by it, would certainly create more Confuſion and Perplexity than ever.——— Thus they would dazzle his Majeſty's Eyes with the Luſtre of diſtant Hopes, and then would excuſe themſelves for not anſwering his Expectations, by pretending, that at length they diſcern'd theſe things to be impracticable. At this rate, his Imperial Majeſty was to ſacrifice his Glory for an eventual Expectation, the Uncertainty of which was its leaſt Diſadvantage, leave himſelf and his Affairs at the Diſcretion of the Court of Vienna, and at the ſame time declare himſelf an open Enemy to thoſe who have run ſuch mighty Riſques in his Defence.'

These Paſſages clearly intimate, that a new Syſtem is in Agitation, that it was propoſed his Imperial Majeſty ſhould find his Account in it, and that, in ſhort, the future Tranquility of Europe was to be provided for at the Expence of France; but whether it was intended, that his Imperial Majeſty ſhould have Lorrain and Alſace, and abdiſh his Seat of Empire at Strasbourg, is more than can be aſſerted.

Duſſeldorp, Jan. 4. Yeſterday in the Afternoon the Count de Schaesberg received by an Expreſs the melancholy News of the Death of the Elector Palatine, our Prince Duke; upon which he immediately gave Orders, as Chancellor of the Duchy of Juliers and Bergue, to ſhut up all the Offices belonging to the Court; Directions were likewiſe given for the Patrolling Night and Day the Horſe and Dragoons in this Neighbourhood. We have Letters dated the 2d of this Month from Egra, which ſay, that Part of the French Gariſon from Prague arrived there on the 24th, 26th, and 27th of laſt Month, but in a miſerable Condition. They were forced to leave their diſabled Men, wherever they halted, with a Trumpet, to implore the Clemency of Prince Lobkowitz's Officers, who were in purſuit of them. Numbers died of Cold and Wearineſs; moſt of their heavy Waggons were left behind, the Men taking their Horſes by Force in order to eſcape themſelves. M. Belleiſle himſelf was ſo ill, that it was doubted whether he could recover, when the Letters came away; yet the Courier reports, that the French were to march the Day after he ſet out for the Upper Palatinate, the Gariſon at Egra having ſcarce Proviſions for their own Uſe.

Bruſſels, Jan. 1. The Officers who were ſent to view the Roads thro' which the Auxiliary Troops are to march have reported them in very good Order; and, that in conſequence of the Directions they have given, the Magazines will be ſo properly furniſhed, as that they ſhall meet with Proviſion in abundance wherever they are quartered. It is however thought they will not begin their March till the latter End of this Month or the Beginning of next. Prince Charles of Lorrain's Regiment is augmented with two Battallions, tho' it conſiſted of ſix before; and as on the Advance of her Majeſty's Troops towards the Frontiers of Lorrain, Numbers of the Inhabitants have offer'd to enliſt in her Service, it is thought that next Summer a new Regiment will be form'd out of the Natives of that Country, and be ſtiled the Royal Regiment of Lorrain. The ſix Independant Companies, raiſed laſt Year, will be likewiſe conſiderably augmented. We have certain Intelligence from Burgundy, Languedoc, and other Places, that there have been great Commotions on account of the new Levies.

AMERICA.

Newport in Rhode-Iſland, Oct. 1. By a Letter from Capt. Charles Davidſon, Commander of the St. Andrew Privateer of this Port, to his Owners Meſſ. Grant Girdly and Comp. dated at New Providence, Sept. 8, 1742, we have Advice, That the ſaid Capt. Davidſon arrived there the Night before with a Prize Schooner loaded with Proviſions, Wine, Small-arms, &c. bound to the Havana, 13 Hands on board, all Spaniſh except Three, ſo that there's no queſtion her being Prize:

That he alſo ſent home a Sloop by Capt. Brooks, a Dutchman that had engag'd him, but finding he muſt be taken, he made his Eſcape in his Boat with ſome Negroes: His Cargo he has on board the St. Andrew, and, by the Information of the Priſoners taken, her Cargo amounts to 22,000 Pieces of Eight.

The ſaid Letter alſo informs, that Capt. Davidſon was boarded by five Perriaugers in the Bay of Honduras, and had like to have been taken, but killing the moſt of their Hands, the reſt went off.

We expect Capt. Davidſon and his Prizes here daily.

LONDON.

Capt. Millerſon of the Induſtry, arrived at Lancaſter from Barbados, brings Account, that on the 26th ult. in Lat. 53, about 60 Leagues to the Weſtward of Ireland, he ſpoke with a large Dutch Ship of about 300 Tons, and 22 Guns, called the De Vreede, Capt. Marinus Coets, from Curaſao for Amſterdam, in great Diſtreſs, having loſt her Mainmaſt off of Bermudas, and had no Water or Victuals on board. The Dutch Ship ſent his Boat to the Induſtry, and Capt. Millerſon would have furniſh'd them with Proviſions, but it blowing freſh they durſt not take any thing more than Bread and Candles, and intended to come again, but bad Weather parted. One Franciſcus-Jacobus Louck, a Dutch Merchant, came in the Boat to the Induſtry, ſtaid on board, and was at Lancaſter when this Advicee came from thence. 'Twas then 18 Weeks ſince they left Curaſao. Mr. Louck ſays, that they ſpoke with a Spaniſh Privateer not long before they ſaw the Induſtry.

The Dolphin, Gildert, from Barbados for Poulton, is put into Whitehaven.

On Thurſday Evening died at his Houſe in St. Martin's Lane, Thomas Maſton, Eſq; Maſter-Baker of the Victualing-Office, and one of the Bailiffs of Malden.

Extract of a Letter from an Officer on board the Joſeph and Mary Privateer, at Providence, dated Sept. 20, 1742.

——— "The next Day after we anchored at Mona came down two Sloops. The Rocks got ſoul of our Cable, that we could not weigh our Anchor; we cut the Cable and made ſail after them; they hoiſted French Colours, we fired a Shot to bring them to, and they return'd us two. Our Sloop being to Windward of them we tack'd, and made eaſy ſail till they ſhot a-head of us, and then concluded to fight them. We fired another Shot, and they return'd us a Broadſide; we ſoon return'd as good as they ſent. One of them made all the Sail ſhe could and went before the Wind, and the other engaged us five Hours. We tore their Sails and Hull almoſt to Pieces, and killed their Captain and Drummer off their Round Houſe, and ſeveral of their Men, for we ſaw them float by our Side: They killed one of our Men, and wounded two more. Night coming on, we loſt Sight of her all at once, which makes us ſuppoſe ſhe ſunk.

"September the 10th came in three Sloops that the George had taken up at Sea, without any living Soul on board them; they are all condemn'd by the Governor, for the George."

"On the 12th came in the George, with a Snow, a Smuggler, but ſhe was cleared."

"The George, in her Paſſage down to Mona, on the Southſide of Porto Rico, ſaw a Spaniſh Privateer at Anchor; as ſoon as ſhe ſaw the George ſhe weigh'd, and came out to meet her; but taking the George to be really what ſhe was, ſhe went to Anchor again, and the George follow'd, and came to an Anchor juſt by her. She fought the George ſix Hours, but the George run her aſhore, and beat her to Pieces. One of the George's Men was wounded in the Arm, and another ſhot dead on the Spot. The George, after the Gale was over, ſaw a Veſſel that had loſt her Maſts, which they took to be us, but it prov'd to be a Brigg from Barbados bound to Virginia."

PARALYTICON, seu Anima Nervorum A Stupendous Chymical Effence, which infallibly cures the PALSY, and all other NERVOUS DISEASES:

THE very first Dose of it (a few Drops only) instantly penetrates the inmost Recesses of the Nerves, and darting almost as quick as Lightning thro' the whole Human System, diffuses kindly Warmth and genial Comfort to the weaken'd Limbs, and all Parts of the Body, and affords immediate sensible Relief in the most obstinate Palsy, and all Paralytick Affects, Shaking, Trembling, Numbness, Deadness, and Weakness, whether universal, or of particular Parts only, or whether lately contracted, or of many Years Continuance.

And as the very first Dose makes an apparent demonstrable Amendment, so the continuing of it for a short Time as surely accomplishes a perfect Cure, not only of the most grievous Palsy or Relaxation of the Nerves, but also of their Cramp-like Contractions, Shrinkings of the Sinews, and all other Nervous Complaints whatever, even that in Persons of either Sex, or of any Age, and whether occasioned by preceding Illnesses, fast Living, hard Drinking, long Courses of Physick, great Colds, or excessive Fatigue, either of Mind or Body.

Words cannot sufficiently express the unconceivable Efficacy of this great Medicine, as all who take it frankly acknowledge; and its vastly superior Excellency to all other Remedies, may be more securely rely'd on, for the absolute Cure of the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Indispositions, than the Celebrated Cortex is for Intermittents.

It rectifies all Disorders of the first Passages, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, enriches the Blood, restores the natural Vigour and steady Use of the Limbs, and strengthens the infirm Joints, Muscles, Tendons, Ligaments, and whole Habit to an immense Degree.

It is also very pleasant to take, is comforting and cordial to the Stomach and Bowels, and for Safety might be given to the youngest Infant.

It is to be had only, by the Author's Appointment at Mr. Rad-cliff's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

The so-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHich in a few Days infallibly cure HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in Men, and the VAPOURS in WOMEN, so as never to return again, be they ever so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by immediately striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as removing the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Train of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, ill Fumes, sour Belchings, Cholick, and Uneasiness in the Bowels; which Crudities, offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublesome Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, Flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, Lowness and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other, almost innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which miserably afflict vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms, in their sharpest Paroxysms, these so much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Gymnick prepar'd from the most valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, restoring the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and, of course, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as the many Thousands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured evince.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be sensible they are absolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and lasting Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Crown-Key and Star in Cornhill, below the Royal Exchange, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with printed Directions at large.
